

Foster Munitionettes

Studio photograph of five munitionettes wearing their work overalls and bonnets. The women were employed on tank production at William Foster & Co of Lincoln. The lady who is seated on the right is Annie Elizabeth Taylor. The woman on the far left of the group is wearing the badge of the Lincolnshire Regiment on her collar; it was probably a keepsake from a man who was on active service.

Document reference: MISC DON 1818/4/6.