

Boultham Park VAD Hospital

Boultham Park VAD Hospital was opened in November 1914 to relieve the pressure on the 4th Northern General Military Hospital, which was based at the Lincoln Grammar School on Wragby Road. The hospital at Boultham originally had 50 beds; 6 of these being provided through a donation by Lady Monson. In its first year the hospital treated nearly 300 patients.

Photographs of patients at Boultham Park Military Hospital.
Document reference: BOULTHAM PAR 23/26.